To show the reader that Calvin is doing a lot of activities.

Phrase 4 means her brother was going crazy with all of his activity. It is also known as a meataphor.

Calvin Churned in a hurricane of activity around me.

The use of this sentence is to show that Calvin is in a hurry and he is very rapidly moving around.

This function means Calvin churned very rapidly like a hurricane.

It shows how chaotic Calvin is, while trying to get ready before the bus comes. It also shows a comedic simile, comparing Calvin's energy to a hurricane.

The phrase "churned in a hurricane of activity", makes me believe that something is a mess or a disaster. Looking around the sentence i can infer that Calvin seems to messy and unorganzied.

The figure of speech makes you realize how crazy everything is for Calvin in the morning. Showing that it was a mess.

He turned in the activity.

To show that he was chaotic and making a mess like a hurricane.
