The function of the underlined phrase is to create visuals for the reader by exaggerating the event. By saying this phrase, the reader visualizes utter chaos in the scene, which is why the phrase is worded the way it is with the figurative language.

he was mad

Calvin is rushing around causng a mess as he is trying to get ready for the school bus

Gave reader mysterious feeling.

it's trying to say that calvin was busy with activity

It is used to emphasize the hurry that Calvin is in, and how he is a teenager and is dealing with things that many teenagers deal with in the morning be hurrying to school. It also correlates with his position in the first paragraph.

it means that he was in a rush, and he didn't have himself ready to leave yet.

"Calvin churned in a hurricane of activity" is used to describe the chaotic morning Calvin was experiencing. He wasn't actually churnin in a hurricane, he is just super busy, eith msny things going on around him.

That he changed throw out the store.

calvin was doing a lot of things in the moment. its pretty much saying calvin had a lot of activities in that moment.

To give the person or Calvin a non human characteristic to describe what he is doing or acting like.

he was full of excitement and energy

The phrase serves to illustrate the overall chaos Calvin was creating by being ill prepared for school and late to the bus stop. He's trying to catchup and that's what this phrase is a nod too.

Calvin didn't really have everything together and organized.

The function of the underlined phrase is to tell what Calvin is doing at that time.

prepositional phrase acting as an adverb to describe Calvin's movement

This phrase emphasizes that Calvin is moving at a very frantic pace.

he basically went from happy to mad like a hurricane he did a complete 360

The function of the underlined phrase was to put an image in the readers head, that Calvin was running all over the place and it was a complete mess.
