School Mural

Mr. Wade gathered the members of the Art Club for a meeting. "We need to discuss (1) our plan for this year's art project," he said.

Wade raising (2) his hand. "I thought we'd do a sculpture garden like we did last year," he said.

Kendra said, "It might be fun to try something new this year. right?" (3)

Mr. Davis asked, "Kendra what (4) do you have in mind?"

"A mural a stained glass window, or a mosaic," (5) she said.

Everyone yelled, "Mural!" at the same time.

Kendra walked around the classroom. Kendra gave each member of the Art Club a sheet of paper. (6) She went up to the front of the classroom and began her presentation.

"I propose we paint a mural on the east wall facing the bus parking lot. That particular area is a very drab (7) part of the school with no trees. A mural will let students look at something interesting at both dropoff and both at pickup. (8) Even though the Art Club will paint the mural, (9) we can get the entire school involved in what images will be a part of the mural. First we will ask our classmates for suggestions of their ideas for items that best represent our school and after that then have everyone vote for their favorite ones of these ideas. (10) The five items receiving the most votes will be the five items included in the mural. Then the nine members of the Art Club, with help from Mr. Davis, painted (11) the mural."

"What do you think?" asked Kendra.

Jessica spoke up. "I read a book called 'Street Art in America' (12) that said when towns have murals painted, it increases interest in the town. People come to visit the town just to see the murals. It looks as if we all really like the idea."

Wade said, "Maybe I can paint my sculpture idea as a part of the mural instead!"

Mr. Davis said, "I guess that depends on how many votes you get: doesn't it?" (13)
