“Life of Kentuckians_Early Shakers in America”

Paper	RF Number	Score	Notes
a101	AABDSP1382 2000024384	0	Anchor Paper 1 Score Point 0 The student response is irrelevant, it does not answer the prompt with anything meaningful (Kentucky, had early Shakers...along the trail of America...had to take that trail along Kentucky).
a102	AABDSP1382 2000101563	0	Anchor Paper 2 Score Point 0 The student response provides irrelevant information from the text and does not answer the prompt (shacker communities have remained true to the ideas of peace taught by Mother Ann. Our founder Mother said, 'Hand to the work, hearts to God').
a103	AABDSP1382 2000027120	0	Anchor Paper 3 Score Point 0 The student response is irrelevant, it does not provide a similarity or difference between Kentuckians today and early Shakers in America ('some people call them sharkers because of they would dance and shake during worship').
a104	AABDSP1382 2000103518	1	Anchor Paper 4 Score Point 1 The student response provides a valid difference with details from one source (back then the Shakers were jailed for their beliefs. But now we can believe in whatever we want) but is missing a similarity between Kentuckians today and early Shakers in America.

a105	AABDSP1382 2000079144	1	Anchor Paper 5 Score Point 1 The student response provides multiple similarities, using multiple sources for this valid answer (early shakers made a living from selling seeds as some people do now, they made boxes to display the seed's packets to sell, as the modern day Kentuckians do now...shakers made furniture that was simple and well made...they also made the design of the common type of the chair which is lighter and more comfortable, And the modern day Kentuckians still do all these ways) but is missing a valid difference between Kentuckians today and early Shakers in America. A response must address both a similarity and difference between both groups to achieve the top score point. a106	AABDSP1382 2000280384	1	Anchor Paper 6 Score Point 1 The student response provides a valid answer that includes a similarity and a difference (the Shakers had business with seeds which technically makes them farmers, just like Kentuckians. The only difference is that Kentuckians sell the actual vegetables while Shakers just sell the seeds). However, the response uses only one source (Source 5) for the answer and the prompt requires the use of multiple sources.
a107	AABDSP1382 2000278743	2	Anchor Paper 7 Score Point 2 The student response provides a valid answer that uses multiple sources and includes both a similarity and difference between Kentuckians today and early Shakers in America (we both plant vegetables and fruits...also, we have the freedom of religion...Kentuckians and Shakers are different because Shakers must live in their own communities).
a108	AABDSP1382 2000280390	2	Anchor Paper 8 Score Point 2 The student response provides a valid answer that includes both similarities and differences supported with evidence from the Introduction, Source 4, and Source 5 ('The united Society of believers was a religious group' and people still have religious groups today...they make furniture and we still today make furniture...it says 'Rules established by the shaker leaders' while we may still have rules today there are a little bit different...[the Shakers] should refer a member as a brother or sister but we don't usually do that today).

a109	AABDSP1382 2000027449	2	Anchor Paper 9 Score Point 2 The student response provides a valid answer that uses multiple sources and includes similarities and a difference between Kentuckians today and early Shakers in America (they both had leaders of thier groops so like Mother Ann was the leader of the shakers and to me Kentucky is one big groop so the govner is our leader...both have strict rules that people were excpted to follow...[they] were different because I feel like people don't farm as much now and if you didn't farm back then you couldn't really surive).
